

STATINTL

CPYRGHT

FOR ANY ABEL DIVISIONS.

Soviet Wants Abel Back

VICTOR DIESEL: INSIDE LABON

ANKARA, TURKEY, May 31.—There is no business like any business. Over in Rome there are Soviet intelligence agents offering ten thousand dollars (the old currency) for a valid American passport.

They'll take one. They'll take ten. They want to disguise their people as U. S. citizens and get them into the country to beef up their underground."

And in this part of the Near East, you can see that the British works harder at the spy business than the Germans. In the end, the British spies are deadlier.

Recently they gunned down a young man, an agent over in Kyrenia, Cyprus. Not to worry, the exposure of the Russians here has been red spv so strategically placed inside NATO to tip Moscow on the identity of its top spv Americans too.

The murdered young British operative had been nosing too closely around still another spy. The dead man's operation is the kind allford. Good agents are hard to come by. But the Soviets know that internationally trained global spy masters are scarcer than a Scotch

Frank was telling me about the day when he learned the what West officers of Ken King and Tom McCoy. "The finest of this type I ever saw," he said, "was Tom McCoy." The

Of these few there is one who knows more how to infiltrate us than anyone in the Soviet Union. The only trouble for the Russians, that is, this agent is in an Atlantic Ocean. He is Adolf Ivanovich Abet.

THE RUSSIANS WANT him back so badly, Tuck's biggest thrill came when they've ever recognized as their own. When was 8 when Buffalo Bill called the Soviet Embassy sent two of its people over his out of an audience and rode

The Russian government is offering U.S. citizens intelligence service in the 1994

ERROL recording the hotter having at the last

CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT